

PAUL BEACH

President

Paul Beach is Quallion's President and directs all aspect of the company's business operations. Mr. Beach has been engaged in the Li ion battery business for over 9 years and has lead the company's penetration into the medical, military, aerospace and green technology markets. Mr. Beach joined Quallion in February 2001 and oversees sales and marketing, program management, government relations, contracting, compliance and intellectual property. Prior to joining Quallion, Mr. Beach practiced complex litigation specializing in intellectual property matters. Mr. Beach is proficient in Japanese and holds a B.A. from Colby College, a J.D. from University of Maine Law School, and an L.L.M. from the University of California at Berkeley.